Available for Concerts, Parties, Weddings, Funerals, and Other Festive Occasions

The Blue Hill Brass Quintet has been delighting audiences for over twenty years with their unique blend of music and entertainment. Whether playing a formal concert or wedding, strolling the grounds of a country fair, or ensuring the success of a special party, any Blue Hill Brass performance is guaranteed to make you smile! Over the years, the group has performed extensively throughout New England at such events as the Eastern States Exposition in Springfield, Massachusetts; The Mt. Washington Hotel in New Hampshire; The Union Fair; The Fryeburg Fair; The Bangor Fair; The Yarmouth Clam Festival; Belfast Days; Heritage Days, Bath; Sugarloaf-USA; The Maine Festival, MPBN Radio; and The Great Went Phish Festival in Limestone.

Members of the group, five of Maine's most prominent and active musicians, perform wherever fine music is heard. Group members regularly perform with the foremost musical ensembles in the state including the Portland Symphony Orchestra, the Bangor Symphony Orchestra, the Al Corey Orchestra, and the Maine Chamber Ensemble. Members of the group are: Curt Brossmer and Allen Graffam, trumpets; John Wheeler, horn; Stephen Norris, trombone; and Paul Greenstone, tuba.

The Blue Hill Brass specializes in playing music that is enjoyed by everyone. There is no typical Blue Hill Brass Quintet concert, as the group responds to suggestions from the audience to meet the musical needs of the moment. The only consistencies in programming are the excellent musicianship of the players and the entertaining quality of the performance. This talented group of versatile musicians will make any event exciting, memorable and, most important, FUN!
